PREPARATIONS AT ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Feb. 19.—The funeral of General W. T. Sherman on Saturday next will be one of the most magnificent pageants ever seen in this country.
The number of the troops from neighboring States is much larger than had been expected, and the number of those who will participate in rendering the last honors to the departed soldier is being constantly increased.

A letter has been received from the Adjutant-General of the Ohio militia saying that the First and Fourteenth Infantry Ohio National Guard are coming here. Department Commander Kas-sier of the Grand Army of the Republic has received notices from numerous posts in Illinois, Kansas, Iowa, Wisconsin and Missouri announcing their intention of participating. Commanders of the Local Guards of Indiana, Michigan and Illinois will be present and the Ohio commandery will join the funeral party at Cincinnati. The Sons of Veterans of Illinois, Kansas, Arkansas, Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri will be represented to the number of 1,000.

The pall-bearers have not yet been selected. The choice was left with Mr.
James E. Yeatman and Mr. Henry Hitchcock, old friends of the family.
At 8 o'clock this evening memorial services will be held in Music hall of the Exposition building. Governor D.
R. Francis Hon. S. M. Breckinridge, Colonel D. P. Dyer and Mr. Henry Hitchcock will deliver addresses. The following telegram was sent Wednesday to the Secretary of War:

"HON. REEDFIELD PIOTROK, SECRETARY OF WAR, WASHINGTON, D. C.: The committee in charge of arrangements for the funeral of General Sherman respectfully request that you authorize General Merritt to detail a guard at the grave of General Sherman for such length of time as may be deemed best, as was done on the occasion of the interment of General Grant."

"O. STANARD, Chairman."

Two companies of infantry have arrived here from Fort Leavenworth, Kan. They came in advance to prepare camps for the others. The camp will be on the old arsenal grounds, in the southern part of the city. All the railroads leading to this city have established a rate of one fare for the round trip, tickets good from Friday to Sunday, inclusive.

The question has been raised as to whether or not General Sherman can be buried in Calvary Cemetery. A high church official is authority for the statement that even though the last rites of the church were not administered his failure to receive such rites would interfere in no way with his interment in Calvary, only a portion of the cemetery being consecrated. That part of the burial ground in which Mrs. Sherman was interred is not consecrated.

Numerous offerings of floral tributes have been received by the committee, but in accordance with the wishes of the family and in conformity with the severe simplicity of a military funeral, there will be absolutely no flowers.

GAZED ON THE FACE OF THE DEAD.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Hundreds of persons have visited the residence and viewed the remains of the late General Sherman. The White Star line steamer Majestic, from Liverpool, arrived off Fire Island at 3:30 p.m. Among those on board was Thomas Ewing Sherman, and the arrival of the steamer will enable him to take part in his father's obituary.

General Vessey, the Commander in Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has issued the following order:

"HEADQUARTERS OF THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC: All posts of the Grand Army of the Republic are ordered to meet the funeral train of General Sherman at the railroad stations en route from New York to St. Louis and return to the same."

The Recorder says editorially that the New York City should at once erect a statue to General William Tecumseh

Sherman. The Recorder undertakes the work. It subscribes $1,000 to a fund for the purpose and invites general contribution.

The police arrangements for the funeral procession have been completed. Seventeen hundred men have been detailed and a mounted escort of forty-five men will be under command of Sergeant Revelle. They will escort the body to the ferry. All of the commercial exchanges in this city will close at noon. The City and United States courts will hold no sessions.

The law is not quoted in the contract, but reference is made to it by its proper title and section.

This condition means that alien labor of whatever nationality will not be used in world's fair construction, whether under contract or direct supervision.

The amount involved in the contract is $200,000.

This has not yet been signed, but will be executed immediately.

No eight-hour condition was inserted, nor was police protection made a feature of the contract, for the alien clause will remove the occasion for such riotous proceedings as have disgraced Jackson Park the last few days.

Short in Their Accounts.

GRINNELL, Ia., Feb. 19.—An expert accountant has been examining the county books and finds a shortage of $3,000 in an ex-auditor's accounts and $300 in those of Clerk Patten.

The latter confesses judgment on the part of the account with him. The county attorney has been instructed to take legal steps to secure to the county the money due it. Two other county officials found to have overdrawn their account nearly $1,000, but have paid in full.

A SENSIBLE BILL.

The bill before the legislature regarding libelous publications seems likely to become a law. As was explained, it provides that where articles are complained of as libelous there shall be no presumption of malice unless there is a refusal to publish a retraction or make a suitable apology, unless there are attendant circumstances that leave no room for question. It is surprising that there should be occasion for such legislation in any state. The common law principle, that the presumption is in favor of innocence and freedom from malicious purpose, should apply as well to newspaper and other publications as to persons in other pursuits. It is for the interest of the public that the press should be as free as possible to expose people whose bad ways are dangerous to others. There should be no liability for the errors of unavoidable haste or misinformation, where prompt reparation is had. The malicious slanderer should have no toleration.

MORMONS TAKE A BACK SEAT.

The experiment of conducting future campaigns in Utah on republican and democratic lines will attract widespread attention.

Henceforth politics, strictly speaking, formed no part of contests in the territory. It was the Mormon church against the field—retrogression against progression. The sharp defeat of the church party in its stronghold, the drastic decisions of the court, followed by the official repudiation of polygamy as an article of creed, combined to shatter its political power while forcing it to place itself in accord with law and public sentiment.

Whether three parties will flourish in Utah time must determine. It is more than likely the Mormons will throw their power with one of the two parties and disappear as a united quantity from the politics of the territory. That such is the plan is apparent from the desire of all classes to hasten the admission of Utah as a state—a result dependent on the retirement, temporarily at least, of the church from active politics.

A Mc KINLEY PLATE GLASS INDUSTRY.

The reaction from the "Triumph of Lying" seems to be at hand. We hear no more from the "reformer" the cry about the McKinley prices, but instead news items like the following are beginning to gladden the workingman's heart: "The plate glass factory now being constructed at Irwin, Pennsylvania, is to be one of the largest plants of the kind in America. Over 600 men will be employed, and while the capitalists will give no figures regarding cost, the outlay will amount to over $1,000,000. A leading New York banker is behind the enterprise, which is to be known as the Pennsylvania Plate Glass Company."

Reports from the east indicate that the 20 per pound rate of duty on Sumatra tobacco has not affected the prices of cigars made in this country as was claimed by opponents of the tariff rate. Manufacturers are buying but little of this imported leaf, and are gradually working into domestic wrapper leaf. Before Sumatra tobacco became known, domestic wrappers were used almost wholly. Some of the local manufacturers never adopted the silky imported leaf, sticking to the best grades of domestic stock. Where the increase in the price of domestic cigars might come, would be under the rule that all Havana tobacco imported, containing any portion of leaf suitable for wrappers, shall pay duty at $2 per pound. This rule is not likely to be enforced, as the Havana imported is all intended for fillers, no matter how large the leaves may be.

According to the report of the Massachusetts railroad commission, 199 persons were killed or wounded in that state last year by trespassing on the roads. Of these 158 were walking on the tracks and 41 stealing rides, the latter mostly tramps, probably. It is difficult to enforce laws against persons who risk their lives in such ways. A great portion of the casualties anywhere are caused by violation of known rules, but those who are killed are probably the only ones who profit by the experiment.

General Sherman was the only one of the more noted Union commanders who lived beyond his seventh year. Grant, Sheridan, Thomas, Hancock, McClellan, Meade, Warren, McDowell, Halleck, Hooker, Burnside and Logan all dropped into soldiers' graves before reaching the moderate limit of life. Among the familiar names of generals of the war still living are Rosecrans, Buell, Butler, Banks, Howard and Palmer, all past seventy.

A weather prophet in Missouri has arranged for the destruction of the earth sometime between April 1891 and April 1892. He is thoughtful enough to leave a comfortable range for the interesting event. It is the better way, always. Had he made the maximum time 1992 it would have been better for his reputation as a prophet:

COST OF THE FLOOD.

DAMAGE IN PENNSYLVANIA AND VICINITY ESTIMATED AT $2,000,000.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 19.—The rivers reached their highest point at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, when the gauge showed thirty-one feet ten inches. At 10 o'clock p.m. they had fallen twenty-nine feet. The rain has ceased at up-river points. A cold wave has set in, and both the Monongahela and Allegheny are falling rapidly up around the headwaters. As far as known there has been no loss of life. It is estimated that the experience since Monday will cost the two cities $1,500,000, to say nothing of the suffering and inconvenience, and many people claim that $2,000,000 will be nearer the correct figures. It is claimed that from 25,000 to 30,000 men will lose on an average three days from their labors because of the suspension of work in the mills. Figuring the average wages at $2.50 a day, a fair total would be $200,000. The loss of business to railroads, the damage to freight and the cost of repairs it is thought will reach $20,000.

The big down-town merchants calculate that $300,000 will hardly make good the damage to goods and the cost of placing all the flooded businesses back in the former condition. This includes the expense of taking property out and into basements again, pumping cellar out, and making necessary repairs of damages.

It will probably require $300,000 to make good the mills and manufacturing plants that have been submerged. In dozens of instances machinery has been badly damaged, stocks destroyed and buildings considerably wrecked. The loss to families can only be guessed at. It is conceded on all hands that fully 4,000 homes have been flooded, some of them badly. The cost of moving twice in hundreds of instances and damage to household effects, repairs to buildings, many of which have been considerably wrecked, replacing of fences and outbuildings carried away, pumping out cellars, etc., will certainly reach $300,000.

JOHNSON, Pa., Feb. 19.—It is found that the foundations of many houses are undermined and loosened, thus entailing great loss. The bones of a flood victim were found at the point Wednesday, having been washed up by the waters. They were taken to the morgue and then interred in the "unknown" plot at the cemetery. Street-cars are running again, and it is expected the Cambria works will resume operations to-day.

DANGER AT EVANSVILLE, IND.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 19.—The river, which has been on a stand at this point for the last two days, has commenced rising again, and now registers forty-nine feet on the gauge, placing it three feet above the danger line. An immense amount of bottom land above and below the city is under water, and the greatest anxiety exists among the farmers along the river, as it is generally believed that the water will reach the highest point since 1884. The local packets are busy removing stock from the endangered points, but the water has already reached many places and rendered aid impossible. At several points between this city and Owensboro many of the farmers have been slow about moving their stock and are now cut off by back water. At a number of places the stock are standing in the water and unless helped by ferry-boats soon will be lost. An immense amount of corn is also in danger in the bottom lands, where the owners have generally neglected to take the precaution to build their pens above the high-water mark. Many of the farms in Union township have already been deserted, the farmers having removed their families to the high ground for safety.

The Ohio Valley railroad track is now under water, in some places several inches, making it difficult for trains to pass over, as the locomotives are in danger of having their fires extinguished, but thus far this trouble has been avoided by banking the fire-pans before passing through the water.

STEUBENVILLE, O., UNDER WATER.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Feb. 19.—Mark's show the Ohio river to be 43 1/2 feet and rising slowly. This is within 5 1/2 feet of the great rise of 1884. The damage to railroad property is great. The line of the Wheeling & Lake Erie is almost obliterated, and it will be like building a new road along the river front. The lower end of the city and low lands above and below are under water. Many families have been compelled to move out of their houses. The water-works were forced to shut down. The city is experiencing a water famine. All the manufacturers are idle as a consequence.

BROUGHTON IN Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 19.—The senatorial fight reopened with about as bad a split in the Republican ranks as there was Tuesday. Several Republican members, regardless of the action of the Republican caucus Tuesday night, refused to vote for Streeter and scattered their votes among other candidates. Seven ballots were taken, the last one—the 108th—resulting as follows: Palmer, 101; Streeter, 90; Oglesby, 12; Lindley, 1.

Alabama's Legislature Adjourns.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 19.—The session of the General Assembly of Alabama was concluded Wednesday and the body adjourned at midnight nine o'clock. Both houses passed and the Governor signed a bill appropriating $10,000 for the completion of the Confederate monument on capital hill.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Feb. 19.—Governor Elisha Quisenberry has condemned the death sentence of Charles Stewart, who was to be hanged here Friday to twenty-one years' imprisonment.

CHANGES OF CLIMATE.

KILL MORE PEOPLE THAN IS GENERALLY KNOWN. Particularity is this the case in instances where the constitution is delicate and among our immigrant population seeking new homes in those portions of the west, and where malarial and typhoid fevers prevail at certain seasons of the year. The best preparation for a change of climate or diet and water which change necessitates, in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which not only fortifies the system against malaria, a variable disease, and combats and the debilitating effects of tropical heat, is also the leading remedy for constipation, piles, liver complaint, bodily troubles specially apt to attack emigrants and visitors to regions near the equator, mariners and tourists. Whether used as a safeguard by sea voyagers, travelers and immigrants, or of agriculturists in newly populated districts, this fine specific has elicited the most favorable testimony.

LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—Market active and firm. Quotations at $4.50-$5.00 for choice to fancy steers; $4.50-$5.50 for fat cattle; $4.00-$4.25 for公牛; $3.50-$4.25 for公牛公牛; $2.50-$3.75 for steers; $2.00-$2.75 for feeders; $1.50-$2.25 for calves; $1.00-$2.00 for lambs; $8.00-$10.00 for hoggs; $6.00-$8.00 for pigs; $3.50-$4.50 for light, 10-12 lb. steer; $3.50-$4.50 for heavy packing and shipping lots.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's Mort's Patent Life Saving Compound, Dr. Bucklin's Arnot's Salve and Electric Balsam, and have never handled remedies that sell well, or that have given such universal satisfaction.

We do not hesitate to guarantee these every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfactory use is not followed their use. These remedies have won their great popularity on their merits. F. Shaver & Co., druggists.

ILLINOIS.

BUSINESS TRANSACTED IN BOTH BRANCHES OF THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 19.—Among the bills introduced in the Senate were the following: Changing the minimum number of days per year that school is required to be kept from 110 to 130; allowing female suffrage at school elections; making the office of jailer in each county elective by the people instead of appointive by the sheriff, the salary to be fixed by the county board; appropriating $10,000 annually for the fund of the Illinois Firemen's Association for the aid of firemen injured in the discharge of their duty; amending the compulsory school law.

The bill making the contract rate of interest 7 per cent, and the legal rate 5 per cent, was read a third time and passed by a vote of 41 to 5. The Senate joint resolution of respect to General Sherman's memory was adopted unanimously. The House joint resolution received January 14 favoring the passage of a free coinage bill was called up. Senator Fuller offered as a substitute that the Senate be requested to pass the silver bill now pending. Senator O'Connor moved to lay the resolution and the substitute on the table, and his motion was carried. Consideration of the House joint resolution favoring the election of United States Senators by a direct vote of the people was postponed indefinitely.

In the House a bill was introduced providing for a law to prevent minors from entering saloons for any purpose under a penalty, both on the parents or guardians and saloon-keeper. If the bill becomes a law parents can not use their children or female servants under 18 to "rush the growler." Among other bills introduced were the following: Allowing farmers the ownership of one dog free from taxation; seeming to all inmates of insane asylums their postal rights and providing a heavy penalty against any one who shall deprive them of these rights; providing that Judges of the Supreme Court shall receive a salary of $10,000 per annum instead of $5,000, as now; the world's fair bill prepared by the State Board of Agriculture is a misdemeanor on the part of employers to require as a condition of employment the surrender of any right of citizenship, public or private, political, social, moral or religious. Mr. Carmody introduced a resolution denouncing the employment of non-union and alien laborers in world's fair contracts.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 19.—The trial of Charles F. Vail, for shooting and killing his wife, Fannie S. Vail, on Feb. 11, opened yesterday. The defense has secured heavy life insurance, was begun in the criminal court Tuesday. Prosecuting Attorney Mudd of St. Charles County, made the opening speech for the State. He said that Vail's marriage had been harmonious until a accident, when he replied at once: "Oh! Charlie, you shot me," and how he replied at once with the explanation which his attorney was expected to make for him to-day: "No, Fannie, it was an accident; it struck the wheel." Jerome Ferguson, his lawyer, told the jury
